Rev. W. C. Boone To Deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon;
90 To Graduate

HARPER GATTON TO SPEAK

Aloha Oe Services, Followed by
All-Students-Alumni Dance
End Activities of Week

The program for Commencement Week, from May 24 to 29, will be filled with many busy moments for the Sophomore graduating class.

On Sunday night at the First Baptist Church, The Reverend W. C. Boone, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jackson, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

The annual Water Carnival will be on Wednesday, May 27, and Friday,
May 29, in the Physical Education Building.

The Mask and Wig Dramatic Club will present the commencement play, titled "The Solid South," directed by Professor H. H. Kroll.

On Friday morning, May 29, in the Junior College Main Auditorium, the Honorable Harper Gatton, superintendent of Schools of Madisonville, Ky., will deliver the commencement address. Following the address, certificates will be awarded by President James D. Hoskins to the class of 90 graduating Sophomores.

Professor Steve Woods will hold open house to the Agricultural Engineering Building Friday, May 29. The public is cordially invited to visit the building and see the work being carried on in this department.

The Aloha Oe services for graduates only will begin at 7:45 p.m. Following this meeting, the officers for the All-Students Club for next year will be announced.

The last appearance of the outgoing Sophomores will be made in the Physical Education Building Friday night, May 29, where the annual All-Students-Alumni Dance will be held. Negotiations are being made for several orchestras, but none have been decided on as yet for the event.

"T" Club Elects Officers For '36

The T Club of U.T.J.C., comprising the boys who lettered in the two major sports recognized by the Junior College—football and basketball—recently elected Elmer Browning of Humboldt as their president for the 1936-37 school term. Browning starred in the basketball on the local gridiron the past fall, and is expected to be one of the main cogs in the Junior College's eleven next year.

Elmer Vaughan was elected to the vice-presidency, and Douglas Mayo to secretary-treasurer.

The election of the football captain of the Junior Vols will take place immediately following chapel Tuesday.

Public Speaking Club Active

The Public Speaking Club, coached by Dr. Bryant, has been exceedingly active in the short time since its organization. Most of their engagements have been filled and new dates are being made due to the close of the term.

Ben Dodd spoke to the following groups: March 26, 26th Century Club;
April 21, Greenfield High School;
April 23, Rotary Club, Martin; May 4, Martin High School.

Estelle Bailey appeared at Martin's Woman's Club, March 26; Greenfield
High School, April 21; Rotary Club of Martin, April 30.

James Dent addressed Sharon High School April 23; Martin Rotary Club April 30; Woman's Club, May 5. He speaks in assembly May 12.

Charles Williams made talks at the Woman's Club, April 7; Student Assembly
April 21; South Fulton High School
April 30; and Martin Rotary Club
May 7.

Arlynn Bruer is to speak to Martin
Rotary Club May 15 and to Student Assembly May 19. Bruer is a freshman member of the quintet.

ANNUAL WATER CARNIVAL TO BE HELD MAY 27-29

Third Annual Event To Be Special Feature of Commencement Week

The University of Tennessee Junior College Third Annual Water Carnival will be a special feature of the Commencement Exercises at the Junior College this year. As has been the custom in the past, there will be two presentations of the Carnival, which is necessary because of lack of seating capacity of the College pool.

The first performance will be on Wednesday, May 27, at 8 p.m., and the second on Friday, May 29, at 2 p.m. The students are advised to attend the first session of the Carnival so that many visitors on the campus will be able to attend the later session.

The idea of this year's Carnival will be laid in the Royal Palace of the King, Miss Florence Elliott, Women's Physical Education Supervisor, has written an interesting plot for the Carnival, and, with the help of the Life Savers and other members of the College, another successful Carnival is assured.

Last year's Carnival took place in King Neptune's palace, and the year before was an exhibition of a circus.
This year's performance appears to be on a par with the carnivals of the past.

Those that have seen the past carnivals know the treat that lays in store for them, and those that have yet to see their first will be amazed by the performance of local aquatic stars.

A small admission charge of ten and twenty-five cents will be made to defray part of the expenses of the carnival.

Aloha Oe Exercises To End Commencement

The graduating class of '36 of The University of Tennessee Junior College will bid farewell to the Junior College in the impressive Aloha Oe exercises that will be held on the Campus Oval at 7:45 o'clock, Friday evening, May 29.

At the close of the exercises, Markey Lattrell, retiring president of the All-Students Club, will announce his successor for next year.

The Aloha Oe exercises are a part of the commencement exercises of each graduating class. The torch lighting and singing of the Alma Mater are the features of the program.

The Aloha Oe exercises will officially bring a close to the commencement program for the year 1936.

GLEE CLUB PREPARES FOR PERFORMANCES

The College Glee Club, under the direction of Professor Everett Derry, is working diligently in preparation for the commencement exercises in which the Glee Club is to take part.

Although this year's Glee Club was organized late in the year, the group has come along fast, and great things are expected of it in the future. The introductory handclapping club in accepting of town engagements, but next year's yearly practice is promised and with the returning Freshmen to form the nucleus of the future Glee Club future is a prospect.

This year's group was well received at the U. T. Alumni banquet, and many compliments were showered on the members. The exact program for the Glee Club for Commencement Week has not been worked out as yet, with the exception that numbers are to be given at the baccalaureate sermon and at the commencement exercises.

King Cus and Queen Carni

Markey Lattrell and Gwendolyn Whitford were recently elected King Cus and Queen Carni at the annual Athletic Carnival.

ALL-STUDENTS CLUB TO LAKE SATURDAY

Markey Lattrell, president of the All-Students Club, has announced that the annual school trip to Reelfoot Lake has been definitely set for Saturday, May 16.

The car cavalcade will leave from the school at one a.m. Saturday afternoon, and will go direct to Edgewater Beach. The school will have access to the hosts and the swimming pool, as has been the custom in the past.

The student body will be served a fish supper by Mrs. Boyette of Edgewater. The Edgewater Dance Hall will also be open to the students, the music being furnished by a nickelodeon.

The Reelfoot trip is always one of the features of the school year.
The cost of the entire trip is defrayed by the All-Students Club and does not cost the students one cent. All students are urged to go on this trip.
The new spring term students are,
especially invited.

OPEN HOUSE TO INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Professor Stephen Richard Woods
announces annual open house of Industrial Arts Department. The entire Industrial Arts Department will be open for the general inspection of the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., May 29. Many interesting phases of mechanical engineering and other forms of industrial arts will be emphasized.

FROSH BOYS WIN INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET

In the recent intramural track meet the Frosh boys gained on the Sophs by chalking up 38 points to the upper-classmen's 34.

The time of most of the events was good, considering the condition the majority of the boys were in.
Sugg Keiser, elongated Sophomore, was high point man for the meet, with 10 points to his credit, and wins in the broad and high jump.

The winners were: 100 yard dash, Sturdivant (F), Pinner (F), 10.5; 220 yard dash, Lawler (S), Sturdivant (F), 26; 440 yard dash, Dent (S), Alexander
(F), 56.25; 1 mile run, Parsons
(F), Butler (S), 5.47; 1 mile relay, Freshmen (Portis, Barnhill, Townsend, Fisher), 4.33; shot put, Zarecor (F), Robbins (S), 33.10; high jump, Keiser (S), Fisher (F), 5'5"; discus, Robinson (F), Robbins (S), 105'4"; broad jump, Keiser (S), Pritchett (F), 18'55".

VALUABLE ADDITION TO COLLEGE LIBRARY

A recent addition to the Junior College Library was "Who's Who in America" for 1934-35. This book was presented to the Library by Professor Harry Harrison Kroll, English instructor.
This edition of the "Who's Who" contains 2749 pages and carries short sketches of the lives of 31,981 prominent Americans, including our own Mr. Kroll.

GRID SCHEDULE IS RELEASED FOR FALL

Four Old Opponents Dropped;
First Five Games To Be Played in Martin

M.V.C. CHAMPIONS ADDED $125.00 IN PRIZES OFFERED

Plan To Make U.T.J.C. Bethel Show To Start At 7:30 P.M.; Game Annual Thanksgiving
Event After This Year

The tentative 1936 football schedule of the Junior Vols has been released by Athletic Supervisor H. K. Gantham.
Next fall's schedule will be composed of eight games, four of which are in the Mississippi Valley Conference.

The tentative schedule is subject to change as plans are under way to change the Bethel date so that T.P.E. of Cookeville may be played. Negotiations are under way between Bethel and U.T.
Junior to arrange for an annual Thanksgiving contract after this year.

Next fall's schedule sees the M.V.C. champions, Sunflower Aggies of Moorehead, Miss., playing the Junior Vols at Moorehead. This is the only new opponent in the new schedule.
Hawesee, Lumbata, Southwestern Frosh and Murray Frosh have been dropped from the '35 schedule.

Although the Sunflower Aggies lose practically every man that saw action last year, there comes word from the lowlands that the Mississippians will have another strong eleven on the field.

The Junior Vols will depend greatly upon an experienced backfield and a question mark from tackle to tackle to carry them to victory next fall. Many new men are expected to bolster the reserve ranks and fill a yawning tackle gap.

The tentative schedule is as follows:

Sept. 25, Mississippi Junior College
(here);
Oct. 2, Tupelo Military Institute
(here);
Oct. 9, Arkansas State of Jonesboro
(here);
Oct. 16, Arkansas College, Batesville
(here);
Oct. 23, Delta State Teachers
(here);
Oct. 31, Sunflowers (Moorehead);
Nov. 6, Bethel (tentative).

"SEAF" RILEY GAINS HONORS AT VANDY

Former Junior College Student's Biography Appears In
"Who's Who"

Glendon Seaf Riley, alumnus of
The University of Tennessee Junior College, and at present a student in the Law School of Vanderbilt University, was recently selected as one of eight students to represent Vanderbilt in the "National Who's Who in America of Colleges and Universities."

Mr. Riley's biography has appeared in the annual edition of the "Who's Who." This book has a nationwide circulation, and the selection of one of its biographies is a highly honored privilege given to college students.

Mr. Riley was selected by the Vanderbilt University Association of his many achievements as a Vanderbilt student.

While at U.T.J.C., Mr. Riley was a prominent figure in the athletic life of the college. He was president of the Athletic Association, and was a member of the Junior Vols football team.

Mr. Riley was also a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, and was a member of the Beta Beta Beta Biological Society.

Mr. Riley is now a member of the Vanderbilt Law School, and is a member of the Beta Beta Beta Biological Society.

Plan To Make U.T.J.C. Bethel Show To Start At 7:30 P.M.; Advance Sale of Tickets
Goes Off Wednesday

Everything is in readiness for the annual horse show of the Junior Vols, presided over by Joe Vineyard, president of the Ag Club, and the entire Ag Club. Next fall's schedule will be composed of eight games, four of which are in the Mississippi Valley Conference.

The tentative schedule is subject
to change as plans are under way to change the Bethel date so that T.P.E.

Nov. 6, Bethel (tentative).

Stickers and posters have been distributed throughout West Tennessee, Western Kentucky, and parts of Mississippi advertising the show.

A loud speaker will announce the entries, riders, and the winners.

No judge has been decided on as yet, but Mr. Parham of Lebanon, or Mr. Calhoun Young of Milan, are expected to accept the position.

The advance sale for the show show goes off Wednesday and the price, after this late withdrawal, price of admission after this date will be 35 cents.

Commencement Play Cast Is Changed

Miss Dixie Ford has replaced Miss Dorothy Barnes in the role of "Bam" in the cast of the commencement play, "The Solid South." Miss Ford is a member of Delta Psi Omega and has been prominent in dramatic circles during her two years at the Junior College.

Professor H. H. Kroll, director of the play, announced the change in the cast of the play.

POET'S CORNER

THE FLIRT

An idol stood on a city street
Its head was gold, but its feet were clay
Many a man there came to stare,
But one by one they turned away

A maiden sat by a babbling brook
Her hair was gold but her heart was clay
Many a man there came to court,
But one by one they turned away

He talks and talks To what avail?
One who takes his courses fail,
It's true, but I have still to see His students well-instructed be

His lectures, I'll admit, contain
The "Where-withal" for us to gain
A knowledge vast, a lore profound Which doubtless to his words rebound.

The mill in which the grist is ground
Is lacking 'Pregnant facts rebound
From unreciprocating minds, alack!
Like water from a "goose's" back

O thou dumb freshman, dumber sopho
O greedy swillers from the troughs
Of fathers' pocketbooks, awake!
This proffered dose of knowledge take

KEISER.

A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY

Brain, this action, if you will
On a young lady's smiling form
Or her leaves returning still,
I turn

No answer give me at all times

Why, is it that the teachers, all
Are at a premium? Might we find That "tutes promiscuous" no cab,
Followed thru
Two by two?

Your opinion's good as mine

The select spots are shady nooks
Hidden from all prying eyes
To pursue the lore of books
Lore of books?

Yes, in books
The cause of segregation lies

A psychiatrist averred
Minds work better in the dark
Less distraction is incurred
By the mind,
Just the mind

Hence, the meetings in the park.

Doubt its fearsome visage rears,
How can our fine theories stand,
When the passed overhears
Giggles sly,
A gusty sigh.

And, "Gee, Lloyd, ain't Love grand?"

FORMER UTJC ATHLETES ARE DOING WELL

Former Stars Holding Important Jobs; Many Alumni Coaching and Teaching

The University of Tennessee Junior College former athletes are making names for themselves in other schools, in coaching fields, and in many important jobs throughout the South.

Marvin "Nip" McKnight, captain of the first basketball team in the history of UTJC, and member of the all-MVC quintet of '29, is at present postmaster in Bemis. Over in the eastern section of the state, F. T. Montgomery, captain of the first Junior College football team, is teaching in Bennet Dobbin High School, and is to become Assistant Alumni Secretary of the Medical College in Memphis. June 1, Montgomery married the former Miss Margaret Seat, also an alumnus of the local school.

Remembered to many fans as one of the best all-around athletes of UTJC despite his size, was George Horton of the class of '28, who is now teaching in the Entomology Department in North Carolina State College, located in Raleigh, North Carolina. Horton is married to the former Miss Elizabeth Brewer, graduate of UTJC.

The West Tennessee Supervisor of Rural Resettlement Work is none other than Lionel Barrett, who is remembered as the fair-headed boy who scored the first touchdown in UTJC history.

Perhaps in the coaching field, rather than any other department, have UTJC athletes shown their skill.

Frank Taylor, one of the outstanding backfield men ever to perform on the local gridiron and who was placed on the All-Mississippi Valley Conference team in '30 for his outstanding performances, is now coaching in Bruceton, where he starred during his prep career.

Bob Elliott, captain of the grid team of '29, has been recently appointed head coach at Arkansas State College for the coming fall. Elliott is married to Mabel Wilson, also a graduate of UTJC.

One of the best football players ever to perform under the leadership of Coach H. K. Grantham departed from here when Woodrow Forbes graduated in '30 and entered T.P.I. and later made the all-SIAA eleven. Forbes is coaching now at Munford High School with Clifton Pritchett, also an alumnus of UTJC and star athlete in '32.

The football and track coach of Grove High School of Paris is Leonard Lackey, captain of the 1931 Junior Vol football team and who later attended T.P.I. Another coach who is well-known throughout West Tennessee is Rufus Thompson, graduate in '28 and coach of the Lavinia girls' basketball team, West Tennessee Junior High champions for the past two years.

Ell Aycock, star athlete in '28 and '29 in UTJC, is at present working for a major construction concern in Nashville, and Lloyd Thomas guard of the championship basketball team of '28, is head of the Forestry Department in the OOC camp near Tiptonville.

Clyde Shankle, basketball star of the Junior College a few years ago, is married to Nell Lett, and is coaching and teaching at Obion High School.

There are many other teachers and coaches who are making names for themselves in these fields and it is hoped that recognition can be given to them in a later issue.

Frosh Girls Lose To Sophs in Track Meet

The Sophomore girls swept to victory over the Frosh girls in the recent intramural track and field meet, running up a total of 17½ points to the lower-classmen's 14½.

Thompson of the Frosh, was high point girl for the meet, taking first in the broad jump and second in the 50-yard dash. Frances Ingram ran the 50-yard dash in the fast time of 6.5 seconds.

The winners of the events were as follows: Broad jump, Thompson (F), Stroud (S), 12.5 ft.; high jump, Pritchett (S), Stroud (S), Stewart (F), 4'-3"; 50-yard dash, Ingram (S), Thompson (F), 6.5; 440 relay, Frosh (Blount, Johnson, Stover, Thompson).

U. T., Knoxville—Approximately 40 U. T. students walked out of classes on April 21 and joined in the national student strike against war. Huddled in a building entrance out of a driving rain, they heard David and Franz Daniel tell of a growing movement among students of a refusal to fight in case of war.

SPORT LIGHTS

By Crawford Aden

HORSE SHOW

Maybe a horse show has no place in a sport column, but this event so overshadows all other happenings on the campus, it is hard to keep from mentioning it in passing.

President Joe Vineyard and his crew of Ag boys have so thrown themselves into their work, there is on wonder that they are expecting a crowd of between 1,500 and 2,000 people in the stands when the show opens; and there is no reason the stands should not be filled to the above number.

It is rare indeed that this section of the country has an opportunity to gaze upon the class of horse-flesh that will be on parade here Friday night. From the middle section of Middle Tennessee to Memphis in the south, and to West-ern portions of Western Kentucky, leading horse owners will come to compete for the blue ribbons.

The owners of these horses are not in the business of howling off their horses for the money involved, but rather for the love of seeing their animal win. These men travel all over the country to enter their horses in shows and ask nothing but be allowed the privilege of entering their horse.

It takes a good deal of time and money to carry a horse from show to show, and as a result, the majority of the owners are comparatively rich men.

Horse shows have long been favorite means of entertainment in Mississippi and many places throughout the South, but it was not until last year that the horse show craze entered West Tennessee. It proved popular and this year it seems likely to increase in favor with the fans of this territory. The show here Friday night should serve as a good test of whether last year was a novelty show, or whether people really like it. I feel it is the latter.

RACQUETS IN THE AIR

The air is full of the "swing" music played by Benny Goodman and the rest of the boys, and the UTJC students, not to be outdone, are filling the air with the swing of the tennis racquet and are practicing diligently for the intramural tennis tournament now in progress.

The field is probably faster than last year, and several good players have already been eliminated. Sugg Kelsner, the returning boys' champ, has shown all of his old-time skill and will be the boy to beat for the title. His most heated competition is expected to come from Charles Fisher, the Covington boy who has shown up well in the earlier rounds. Gordon

Wilder, a wicked racquet swinger who hails from Huntingdon, has a good record to back him up and may slip into the final round. There are several dark horses, with any number of them likely to come through.

The girls' tournament probably will be ruled for the second straight year by Miss Ann Fitts, the defending champion. Miss Fitts has shown more consistency than the rest of the field and is expected to come through to cop the title.

There are many other girls who may pull a surprise and upset the champion, as the field is full of dark horses.

JUST COMPARISON

The West Tennessee Track and Field Meet at Covington revealed several startling facts to the sport followers of this territory.

The Third District Track and Field Meet held at UTJC a few weeks ago saw a vast improvement over the meet of the year before. Records were faster; the athletes were decidedly in much better condition; and athletes of these schools were expected to make a good showing at the West Tennessee affair, but only Union City's relay team and Guy of Troy were able to place in the meet.

TRI-CHAMPS

It has been quite a while since a college has so dominated MVC conference play as have the Sunflower Aggies of Moorehead, Mississippi, the past year.

The Aggies came along with one of the strongest teams in MVC history to walk away with the football championship, and a sharp-shooting basketball five, not to be outdone, went to Jackson to take the championship home with them, defeating the Lambuth Eagles, '35 champs, in the finals.

Just last week, the Aggies annexed their third major title, winning the baseball championship.

The Mississippi Valley Conference recognized tennis as a major sport, but Sunflower does not have a representative in the conference tennis meet at David Lipscomb, which the rest of the conference may be glad to know.

The Junior Vol eleven invades the Aggie stronghold next fall and it will be interesting to see just how these two powerful teams will stack up.

THE INTRAMURAL TRACK ANGLE

The recent intramural track meet shows that UTJC might have had a good representative on the cinder track the past year.

Boys who were not in training clocked off 10.5 in the hundred, 26 flat in the 220, and 48 seconds in the 440. These records are not so startling to the ardent track fan; but, when one takes into consideration that the majority of the contestants had not been in training since their high school days, and had not taken part in intercollegiate competition, you must admit they are pretty good.

Perhaps the best record in the field events was the discus throw of 195 feet and four inches by "Red" Robbins.

There is no doubt all of the records would have been bettered with a little practice.

WITH OTHER COLLEGES

Mississippi College—Three students have thrown their hats into the political ring in the election for Student Body head that will take place on May 14. Each declared independency of political groups and offer progressive platforms.

T. P. I.—T. P. I. will not be represented on the tennis courts this year, according to a statement made by F. V. Foster, director of athletics. Intramural athletics will take the place of the intercollegiate sport.

Union University—The Chi Omega fraternity recently held a Founder's Day banquet in the Gold Room of the New Southern Hotel, where more than 100 members and alumni gathered to pay tribute to the founders of the society.

Murray State—The Murray State College News was awarded a gold key for the best news story of any college paper in Kentucky at the eighteenth semi-annual meeting of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association held at Eastern State Teachers College in Richmond, Kentucky.

David Lipscomb—For the second consecutive year, David Lipscomb will be host to the Mississippi Valley Conference Tennis Tournament. This meet is to be held on May 22 and 23 on their courts.

Los Angeles College—With nearly three thousand persons in attendance Los Angeles Junior College entertained the general public with Open House day festivities including exhibits and entertainments by 28 departments of the campus Friday, April 17, during the afternoon and evening.

Ward Belmont—Frederick Jagel, the leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Association made a personal appearance at Ward-Belmont, April 16. Jagel is considered a combination of first, an artist; secondly, a vocalist, and thirdly, an irresistible performer.

SOPHS PLANS FOR FUTURE ANNOUNCED

Many Students Plan To Enter
Big U. T.; Others Choose
Teaching Profession

(Volette reporters have been trying the past two weeks to find the plans of the graduating Sophomores for next year. The remainder of the class will be interviewed for the next issue of The Volette.)

Robert Harrison and James Dent were the first victims of our roving reporter and they stated they were planning to continue their college work, in all probability at Big U. T., next fall.

"Red" Robbins says that he has plans of entering Union University at Jackson. James Tices is to continue his schooling at Big U. T., and Lloyd Vaughan is planning to attend college, but is undecided. He may teach.

Margaret Adams plans to teach school next fall, and Hortense Cate is going to attend Big U. T. Russell Lawler is going to Knoxville this summer and start work, and plans to enroll at Big U. T. in the fall.

Roy Greeson is slated to attend the University of Florida, and J. C. Stewart will enroll at Mississippi State. Joe Vineyard is going North to attend Michigan State University.

A. C. Jones, Joe Mac Warren, and Margaret and Marjorie Overton are all undecided as to their future education, but all are planning to attend school somewhere next year.

Dixie Ford has not completed her plans for next fall, but has had two attractive offers in her home county to teach. The alternative will be to enroll at The University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

Elizabeth Sparks is also torn between the desire to further pursue her studies at Knoxville and the attraction of an independent life of a school marm.

Thomas Fay Jones will either farm near Greenfield or accept an offer for employment with a local road construction company. He is considering re-enrolling at the Junior College next fall in the College of Agriculture.

Guy Weldon thinks he might work in Chicago during the summer months. His alternatives will be to teach a school or prepare to enroll in school at Knoxville.

Ben Dodd, Lady B. Young, and Ruth Day all have tentative plans for attending U. T. at Knoxville. Cyril Oliver has plans to teach school. Hal McAdams is undecided as to his future schooling.

Glen Gallien, a newcomer to UTJC, has an assignment as principal of the Wayne County Junior High School at Lutts, Tenn. Erwin Jordan will teach in a grammar school in Decatur County.

Naomi Fowler will probably attend U.T.; Marie Holloman plans to continue her college work, but is undecided as to where. Sam and Anne Ozler are planning to attend UTJC this summer and enter Big U. T. next fall.

June Bushart will be at her home in Texas this summer and she plans to enter the University of Texas at Austin in the fall.

"Hots" White is planning to go to Knoxville this summer and enter the Summer Term at Big U. T. Chester Faulk plans to attend The University this fall.

Meiba McLean will visit in Kalamazoo, Mich., this summer, but is undecided as to what she will do this fall. Sugg Keiser will work for the Reynolds Packing Co., at Union City this summer. His plans for the future are undeveloped.

Student Christian Association Holds Vesper Services

The Student Christian Association, following its custom of having a week of inspirational service each year, set aside the nights of April 28, 29, and 30 for a series of vesper services.

The first, conducted by Ernestine Diggs and Estelle Bailey, featured a talk by James Dent on "Jesus Christ, the Scientist." The second, with Mayo Pearson and Elizabeth Barksdale in charge, had as its motif a talk by Mayo Pearson on "What the Student Christian Association Has Meant in My College Life."

The third and final was directed by Elizabeth Sparks and Ernestine Hay. The program: Scripture reading, Ernestine Hay; solo, Martha Hay; reading, Marie Holloman; duet, Meiba McLean, Mildred Tomlin.

A picnic supper with Wilbur Vaughan and his jug band concluded the program.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

Dear Aunt Sophronia:—I am a young girl of 18 years, have black hair, dark brown eyes, and am rather small. I am a Sophomore in The University of Tennessee Junior College, and am quite popular. (Please don't think me conceited as I'm trying to give you facts and I'm told that I'm popular.) I like my boy friend very much, but he has quite an exalted opinion of himself and for that reason we don't get along very well. What should I do?—Perplexed.

Dear Perplexed: It has been written that the biggest tumble a man can take is to fall over his own bluff. Perhaps, since you are popular, if you would disregard his attentions and go with other boys for awhile, he would soon realize his plight and correct it.

Dear Aunt Sophronia: I'm a little girl, 28 years old, weight 189 pounds, height 6 feet. I'm not popular—I like friends, company, attention, admirers, and crowds. What should I do to achieve these?—Tillie.

Dear Tillie: Join the circus.

Dear Aunt Sophronia: I am a Freshman in The University of Tennessee Junior College. I am in love with a very beautiful girl. She says she loves me, but at times I'm doubtful. Should I continue to give her all my attention or should I go with others?—Undecided.

Dear Undecided: Never, under any circumstances, put all your eggs in one basket, unless you're absolutely certain that the girl loves you. Many boys are fooled like that everywhere, and I'm sure that your college is no exception. So beware! Don't let this rather severe warning upset you, but take it for what it is worth.

Anyone who has any kind of question relating to his love affair, feel free to write me and I will answer to the best of my ability.

AUNT SOPHRONIA.

BLESSED EVENTS

"I was overwhelmed," said Miss Billie Caldwell when interviewed by a snooping reporter on the subject of the recent "blessed events and adventures" in the aquatic home of Cecil and Gertrude Crayfish, in the Zoology department.

"I am agin it," said Pop—Crayfish, separated from his spouse and baby offsprings, by a screen wall. This was, however, judged to be the course of greatest expediency by Miss Caldwell, crayfish breeder de luxe, and a la mode, as Papas have shown themselves to be no respecters of offsprings when it comes to the subject of gourmandizing.

"Just try and count 'em," says Mama Crayfish proudly, as she tenderly pinches each tiny rostrum, and not so tenderly pinches anyone's fingers who attempts to get fresh with her freshwater fledglings.

According to Miss Caldwell, it is very unlikely that any of these crawdads will attain their majority. If, however, there are any of these at the end of the present school term, she plans to dispose of them as gifts for friends' fish pools.

Thelma, Thelma, come and telma

Who was the lad with such eyes?
That put you in such a wonderful dilemma.

J. N., this should not be a very big surprise,
For really it happened at the Sophomore party.

Pepys' Peeps

By PETER PEPYS

Thomas Fay, the girls ask that from now on you maintain a hands-off policy.

I extend sympathy to Ben Taylor, who has regular attacks of pleurisy.

I understand Jackson and Adams have the very good (?) habit of accommodating hitch-hikers, especially women. Explain this, boys, and just how far did this accommodation go, please?

Cayce Pentecost seems to be extremely cautious when on the grass in front of the girls' dormitory these days.

Note: This was put in my possession and signed as you see it. I will let you guess whom the poem is about.

This person is just the type Who likes to argue and to gripe. He thinks he's the "stuff" here, too. But he is just a lot of ballyhoo. So here's to types like Ben, Sympathy will be needed when they meet God.

It is a problem of mine why Mike Richmond and Billy Moseley are such good friends. Men usually fight over such things. That is what Pritchett said to Macon if he goes McClaining again.

The pins that the president of the Home Ec Club mentioned in assembly have been questioned. Everyone wants to know if they are "safety pins." Home Ec girls need them, they say.

Sturdivant and a certain young lady "Parks" themselves consistently on the benches in front of the post office.

Guess Who

I wonder why Pat Patterson leaves his little girl, Rachel, and invades the dormitory searching for Lovelle Thompson, and By Edward, she is not even hard to find.

William Dudley has a "Day" girl and then he trips in with an armful of "Joy" at the Sophomore dance.

Good ole tiny Alma—who says she is crazy about "Barnes" dances?

Someone said Sam Ozler had gone nuts. Really, it's just "Fitts".

After a close analysis of Dodd's condition, the doctors report "just a lot of hot air." But what we can't understand is from where does this inexhaustible supply come.

A certain "White" boy is "Wink"ing at Dorothy Barton these days.

Who was the lad who left this in my possession? I suppose he has poetic license.

Balmy, balmy,
Gol dom ye,
In this world
There's many a girl
Who'll use my money
And subtly call me honey.
But 'eres to sweet eyes
That do not tell d-n lies—
In this wonderful world of girls.
